Card of Thanks

I would like to thank all my friends, neighbors and love ones for their cards, flowers, gifts, food, visits, phone calls and prayers during my recent stay in the hospital and since my return home. A special thanks to Rev. Odell Coggins for his visits and prayers.

I love you all,
Joyce Robertson
2-15-1tp

A big thank you to all my friends and family who helped me celebrate my 83 birthday. Thanks for all the cards, visits, phone calls, prayers, cakes, and flowers which included ½ dozen red roses. Every expression of love and remembrance. May God richly bless everyone and you will have health and strength and live to be older than I am. He has been and is so good to me. I love all of you.

Irvin C. Moses
2-15-1p

My sincere thanks to my family and to each of you for the kindness shown to me during my stay in the hospital and since my return home.

To the pastor and his wife for their thoughtfulness. For all cards, calls, visits and flowers. Your kindness shall always be remembered. Your prayers and concern was deeply appreciated by all concerned.

Thank you,
Mrs. Francis G. Seay

Many Games Canceled; Seminole District Season Ending

Some Seminole District basketball teams are wondering if the season will ever come to an end since the area has been turned into a "winter wonderland" for more than a week.

Monday night, three Seminole games were postponed and moved to later dates. The Gretna at Liberty and Rustburg at Appomattox games were moved to Thursday night.

William Campbell will make up its contest with Altavista on Wednesday.

However, if this week's snowfall and low temperatures continue to plaque travel routes, further postponements are likely according to several Seminole District principals.

If anything else, the season has a long way to go at Appomattox and Gretna. Both schools have two makeup games and two regular-season games remaining.

With the Seminole District (boys) tournament starting Tuesday at E. C. Glass, Appomattox and Gretna have four games to play in six days since Sundays are not playing days.

Amherst County, Nelson, Jefferson Forest, and Brookville are the only Seminole teams without makeup dates at this time.

Liberty, Rustburg, William Campbell and Altavista still have one contest to play.

WIN Helps 1,574 Find Jobs; New Tax Credit Aimed At Employers

RICHMOND - The Work Incentive Program (WIN) helped 1574 welfare recipients find jobs during the first three months of the current fiscal year, according to Dr. Arthur L. Lane, Jr., commissioner of the Virginia Employment Commission.

This figure for WIN registrants entering employment during October, November and December 1978 is 344 higher than for the same period last year, an increase of 28%.

"The steadily growing number of WIN registrants hired indicates the continuing confidence of employers in WIN. It seems likely that the substantially increased WIN tax credit contained in the Revenue Act of 1978 that went into effect January 1 will make hiring through WIN even more attractive to Virginia employers," Lane said.

The new tax law allows employers a 50 percent credit on the wages paid to WIN workers during the first year of employment and 25 percent during the second year.

"The 50 percent credit should provide a strong incentive for employers to hire through WIN. If the job is one for which training is required, the employer can also be reimbursed for training costs up to 50 percent of starting wages," Lane explained.

We are pleased that the number of WIN registrants entering employment exceeded by 17 percent the goal for that three-month period. The annualized welfare grant reduction of more than $2.3 million resulting from these job entries indicates the value of the WIN program to Virginia taxpayers," Lane said.

The VEC administers WIN in cooperation with the State Department of Welfare and local social service agencies.

Persons who apply for Aid to Dependent Children, except those who have a child under six years of age who are considered unable to work, are required to register with WIN for job placement or training assistance. WIN provides services such as day care for children, counseling and transportation to make it possible for welfare recipients to obtain jobs.

FREE COMPUTER ANALYSIS AND PACKET BEING OFFERED

gained in summer, and which improvements will be worth their investment. Nicknamed "Honest Sam", the computer recommends improvements that will save money and frankly advises against ones that won't.

The "Do-It-Yourself" Packet features an 80-page publication that takes a step-by-step approach to caulking, weatherstripping and insulating. Citizens can learn to read their electricity and gas meters and to insulate their water heaters for added savings.

The Home Energy Computer Analysis Program is offered as a cooperative program by the Office of Emergency and Energy Services and Va. Polytechnic Institute and State University.

Free Packets are now available in bulk quantities. Call 1-800-552-3831 if you can help us reach the homeowners in your community with free money and energy saving information.

We have had some bad storms already and may have more. Be sure you have available water, food, lighting, and a secondary non-electrical heating system.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO CAMPAIGN EXCUDED EXPENSES FOR DANIEL

Fifth District Congressman Dan Daniel disclosed today that contributions to his 1978 campaign exceeded expenses by more than $14,000.

He said the Daniel for Congress Campaign Committee will hold this in reserve for the 1980 election.

In a report filed with the Clerk of the House of Representatives, the Committee showed $14,694.45 in assets as of December 31st. Contributions to the Daniel campaign, including a $2,830.28 reserve from the 1976 campaign, totaled $19,580.28, while expenses amounted to $4,885.83.

Eleven thousand dollars has been placed in an interest bearing account and the revenue that accrues will be added to the total.

The Committee indicated that some contributions and expenses have occurred subsequent to the period covered by the report and will be reflected in a later filing.

The Daniel for Congress Campaign Committee was established in conformity with the Federal Election Campaign Act and its treasurer is G. A. Shelton, Jr., Midlothian, Virginia.
